

Bio: Bev Atkinson

Bev is a retired school Principal and is now working as a consultant with Principals and leadership teams. She is also working with B.Ed undergraduates at University as well as being involved with a mentor program for children.

Bev's passion for helping children has continued even in her retirement.

She welcomes the opportunity to work with educators to enable them to better understand students who come from Generational Poverty.

